

ADDRESS OFFICIAL COMMUNICATIONS TO
THE SECRETARY OF STATE
WASHINGTON 25, D. C.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE
WASHINGTON

20 February 1957

My dear Mr. Dulles:

Reference is made to my letters of 13 August 1956 and 9 November 1956, regarding our three months course, A-200, for Mid-Career officers in the Foreign Service.

We have had gratifying response to our Mid-Career Course with officers representing several of the various agencies of the Government and are pleased to be able to repeat our offer of an opening for one officer from your organization for the same course, which is now scheduled to start on 15 April 1957.

As I advised you previously, the Institute will make no request for reimbursement for this training since, if you nominate one officer, your nominee can be accommodated without extra expense. However, there are certain minor costs covering per diem and travel during the five weeks' segment conducted at Front Royal, Virginia, that we expect each organization to meet in connection with its own appointee.

If you wish to nominate one of your officers for enrollment in this course, I shall appreciate your advising the Registrar of FSI by 29 March 1957. Please include with his name and rank a brief statement of his educational background and experience with your organization.

An outline of the A-200 Mid-Career course is enclosed.

Sincerely yours,

Harold B. Hoskins
Director

Foreign Service Institute

Enclosure:
